

First fully featured Software Adding Machine

Advantages

- Easy operation like a mechanical adding machine
- Waste your money never again for expensive paper-rolls
- Exchange your calculations with other windows programs
- Export to Microsoft Excel. Load, Save, Print Tape
- Boost your daily productivity

No more changing of paperrolls !

DeskCalc Features

First fully featured Software Adding Machine !

Deskcalc is a fully featured adding machine with the functions you expect from a mechanical adding machine plus capabilities associated with a Windows environment.

Features include a check-strip with comfortable text input per position, correction possibilities (rectifying, adding and deleting values), sales tax functions, cache (memory function) percentage calculation, EURO-conversion, floating point- and fixed point-calculation subdivision into thousands, fast correction key, printing with heading and date/time, Excel-export.

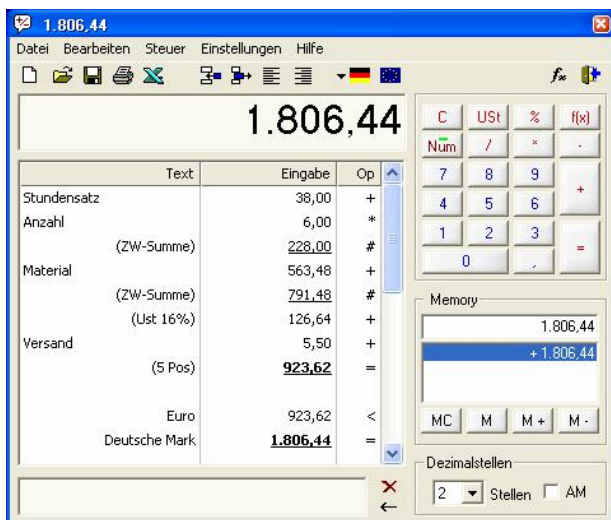

More Features

Memory arithmetic with any tape value and the Running subtotal
Printing tapes on any available printer
One key sales tax closeout with user set percentage
Automatic decimal point insertion
Tape navigation keys
Results in Tasklist / Header of active Program
Expression Calculator

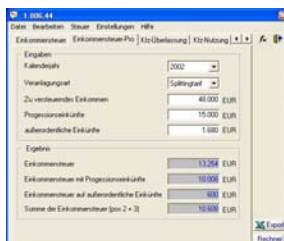

Currency / Euroconverter

Insert new Values, insert rows
Intelligent Textinput
Memory
Machine sounds
Optional tooltips
Load and save the tape

DeskCalc requires 3 MB Diskspace and is working with Win 9x/NT4/2000/XP

User Interface with removeable keypad

Tax Calculations

Export to Microsoft Excel